

ROTARY CLUB
LJUBLJANA – CENTER

Rotary Club Ljubljana-Center kindly invites you to the charity event

St. Martin's Day Evening

The traditional St. Martin's dinner in the company of Rotary Club Ljubljana - Center, who once again are bringing together the love for wine, food, music and a wish to help those in need. This year we are raising funds for talented students of painting arts.

We kindly invite you to join us at VIVO Catering Hall, Dunajska street 125, Ljubljana, on the evening of Thursday, the 8th of November 2018, at 7 pm. For the tenth time running, we will be turning must into wine, words into songs and charity into happiness.

Music:

Prifarski muzikanti (Musicians of Fara).

Gastronomy:

Specially selected St. Martin's Day dishes will be prepared by Vivo Catering's first chef Jerneja Kamnikar.

Wine selection:

A premium selection of fine wines from the Čebren cellar and Vipava 1984 cellar.

For further information regarding the evening's programme, please visit our website: www.rclc.si.

The cost of the evening's dinner, wine tasting and entertainment is €65 per person.

Door sales are also possible at €80 per head. All proceeds will go towards the selected charity.

The payment can be made through bank transfer to the account of:

Rotary Club Ljubljana – Center; Account number: 02010-0255681781

Please include your surname and contact number as a reference. For any further queries and/or cancellations please contact us via phone on: 080 2014, or email: info@rclc.si

I look forward to seeing you there,

President of RC Ljubljana – Center
Matej Eljon
